What is the Junior Legion of Mary?

The Junior Legion of Mary is an organization for the spiritual development of persons under 18 years of age. Each group which is called a praesidium, is run under the guidance of a spiritual director, who is usually a priest or deacon.

Primarily, the purpose is to train and spiritualize the young members. In a short time they will take their place as lay apostles of Christ doing the work as Senior Legion of Mary members.

Junior Legion of Mary praesidia can be found throughout the entire world. Young members of the Junior Legion have suffered persecution and even death for their faith in some countries.

What does The Junior Legion of Mary Do?

Each member must do at least one hour of work each week. This work is assigned at the weekly meeting which all members must attend. Our Junior Legion members are involved in the following types of apostolic works: Visiting and praying the rosary with seniors at Brandywine Assisted Living, Altar Serving, Choir, Little Flowers, Rosary Making, Christmas Caroling, Pilgrim Statue Visits, and assisting with May Crowning, Rosary Rally, Book Barrow and CCD.

Work at home must also be done in addition to weekly assignments. The spirit of Mary working for the Holy Family should be preserved by each member in the work at home.

Please come and see what we are all about!
